

Vanuatu Salary Survey 2018/2019 for businesses

Strategic Pay along with the Airports Vanuatu Limited are pleased to announce the Vanuatu Salary Survey for 2018/19.

In its second edition, the objective of this survey is to provide comprehensive information on remuneration market trends in Vanuatu. This will assist participating organisations in making informed remuneration-related decisions. In addition, it provides a means of comparing individual remuneration rates to your market.

All participating organisations will receive a free copy of the 2018/19 Vanuatu Salary Survey Report in PDF format.

If you wish to participate to the survey and have any questions about the data sheet or need some assistance, please contact Mike Boneham, Technical Consultant, Mike.Boneham@strategicpay.co.nz, P: +64 9 975 7628.

The deadline for submission is Monday, 18th February 2019.

Privacy and Confidentiality, Strategic Pay understands the confidential nature of participants' data and as is the case with all our remuneration reports, information submitted to us for analysis is kept strictly confidential. All data is collated and aggregated within a secure environment and results are not attributable to any individual role or organisation. This strict confidentiality extends to the party commissioning the report and we will not share any individual data submissions or details with anyone outside our organisation.
